Caltrans District 2 Announces New Deputy District Director for Planning and Local Assistance

REDDING - Brian Crane, District Director for the California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) District 2, recently announced the appointment of Tim Huckabay as the District 2 Deputy District Director for the Division of Planning and Local Assistance.

Tim has a strong transportation background having worked for Caltrans since 1983. Tim received a degree in Civil Engineering from California State University, Chico prior to beginning his tenure at Caltrans. His transportation background includes a broad overview of the District including successful assignments in Design, Construction, Engineering Services, Traffic and Maintenance Engineering.

"I have always been extremely impressed with Tim's strong leadership skills, ability to generate and implement new products and processes, and his production oriented approach" said Crane. "I am excited about Tim taking the lead over District 2 Planning and Local Assistance and expect great things to come from him and the Division."

Outside of Caltrans, Tim is an accomplished pilot and enjoys hunting and muscle cars. He is also involved with his children's school and sporting activities. Tim and his wife Pat have three boys, Greg age 19, Kris age 16 and Jeff age 13.
